Introduction

The DLS Section Manual for Officers and Committee Members is intended to assist DLS officers and committee members with their DLS responsibilities and activities. It contains information on the history and organization of DLS, description and responsibilities of committees, conference programming, newsletters and publications, and more.

Executive Committee members should also be aware of two other important sources of information: The _____ and institutions.

Share Information: to facilitate the development and sharing of expertise, practice, resources and research in distance learning library services among librarians, administrators, teaching faculty, instructional team members and students, individually and as members of professional groups and associations.

Support Service Provision at Higher Education Institutions: to promote, discuss, and support library service activities, personnel and resources provided by higher education institutions for distance learners.

Interact with Other Professional Groups: to work with other ALA groups and through the ACRL Council of Liaisons to promote library and information services for those individuals taking and providing courses or higher education programs in distance learning environments.

Develop Conference Programs: to develop conference programs exploring the scope, issues, and research of distance learning library services.

Encourage Professional Development: to enhance the professional development of its members.

Communicate with Section Members: to promote formal and informal networking and communication through a newsletter, web site, the OFFCAMP listserv, Discussion Groups and socials at ALA.

Contribute to Professional Knowledge: to initiate projects, research studies, workshops, committees, and open hearings that promote best practices and contribute to the knowledge base in distance learning library services.

Promote the Academic Credibility of Distance Librarianship: to work with library schools to encourage the study of distance learning library services in the academic curriculum and in research projects undertaken by students and faculty.

Governance Procedures

(Approved June 2014)

A. Name

The name of the organization shall be the Distance Learning Section (DLS) of the Association of College and Research Libraries, a division of the American Library Association, hereinafter referred to as the Section.

B. Purpose

ACRL sections are established for the purpose of building communities of learning and providing professional development and networking opportunities for their members. A Section's name, purpose, and mission are developed by the Section and approved by the ACRL Board. The ACRL Board ascertains that overlaps between the mandates of various sections are minimized.

The primary objectives of the Section will be to advance distance learning librarianship and to foster and share information on distance library services. It shall be the further purpose of this Section to contribute to library service and librarianship through programs, lectures, and publications and to represent distance librarians.

C. Membership

Any member of the Association of College and Research Libraries may elect to be a member in this Section. Every current member of the Section has the right to vote and is eligible to hold office.

The number of "community of practice" affiliations included in the basic ACRL dues is determined by the ACRL Board. The dues for additional affiliations are also set by the ACRL Board.

D. Relationship to ACRL Board

The Board shall be authorized to establish Communities of Practice (including sections), to monitor their activities, and determine their continuance in consultation with the respective groups. The Board shall also be entitled to establish policies to govern the activities of Communities of Practice. (ACRL Bylaws, Article XV)

The Board liaison role provides a critical connection between membership structures and the ACRL Board of Directors. This liaison role can be particularly helpful in providing perspective, guidance, and insight regarding ACRL policies, procedures, and initiatives; soliciting feedback from Communities of Practice regarding proposed Board actions; and providing helpful advice regarding Action Plan Proposals and Board Action Forms which community of practice leaders will need to submit for official ACRL Board and ACRL Executive Committee action/decisions.

The liaison relationship is meant to enhance communication; it is not an advocacy role and for that reason Board members are asked to liaison with communities in which they have not been active. (Tip Sheet for Board Responsibilities)

The Board of Directors is the voice for the association. Sections, committees, and other established units are not authorized to speak for the association except through the Board. This is to say that unit leaders should refrain from issuing statements, taking positions, or endorsing any statements or positions except with Board approval. (ACRL Guide to Policies and Procedures, Chapter 5.12.8, Use of ACRL's Name)

E. Meetings

The Section shall hold an annual Executive Meeting at the time and place of the Annual Conference of the American Library Association. Other Executive Meetings may be called at the discretion of the Executive Committee. All meetings are conducted in accordance with the policies of ACRL and ALA.

Other meetings of the Section may be called by the chair with the approval of the Executive Committee. The Section, with the approval of the Board of Directors of ACRL, may hold closed meetings or joint meetings with other sections. Special meetings may be called at the discretion of the chair, and any special meetings that are called are scheduled by the chair.

A majority of the voting members of the Executive Committee at ALA Annual or a virtual meeting shall constitute a quorum of the Executive Committee.

ACRL units are encouraged to work outside of Midwinter and/or Annual Conference to increase group participation, efficiency, and productivity. Electronic meetings are conducted within the environment of ALA/ACRL bylaws and policies. In all cases these requirements must be adhered to, although they may have to be adopted to fit the virtual environment.

The ALA Policy Manual 7.4.1 defines a meeting as "an official assembly, for any length of time following a designated starting time, of the members of any board, committee task force, commission, etc., during which the members do not separate except for a recess and in which the assembly has the capacity to formalize decisions.” Conference calls, Internet chat sessions (and their equivalents), and in-person meetings are recognized as meetings subject to the open meetings policy (ALA Policy 7.4.4). The chair will announce face-to-face or virtual open meetings at least one week in advance and efforts will be made to announce the time and location or modality using appropriate communication channels.

There is a distinction between carrying on work of a committee electronically and conducting an electronic meeting. Asynchronous electronic discussions by electronic mail or other asynchronous communication methods do not constitute meetings because they are not an official assembly with a designated starting time (ALA Policy Manual 7.4.1).

The Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure (Robert’s Rules of Order) applies to meetings of the Section to the extent that it is applicable, upholds the integrity of the voting processes, helps facilitate progress, and ensures equality, fairness, and common sense.

F: Officers

The officers of the Section shall be chair, vice-chair/chair-elect, immediate past chair, secretary/archivist-elect, and archivist. The vice-chair will serve successively for one year as vice-chair, chair, and immediate past chair. The secretary/archivist-elect will serve successively for one year as secretary/archivist-elect and archivist. All terms of office shall begin at the adjournment of the Annual Conference.

G. Executive Committee

There shall be an Executive Committee consisting of the following voting members: officers of the Section, two elected members-at-large, and the chairs/co-chairs of the standing committees. The chair of the Section shall serve as chair of the Executive Committee.

The Section Executive Committee is responsible for the stewardship of the Section and the coordination of its activities, provided that it operates within the Section mandate and budget as determined by membership level (ACRL Guide to Policy and Procedure, Basic Services, 4.3.2).

The Section’s Executive Committee may establish and appoint standing or ad-hoc committees to assist it in fulfilling the Section’s mandate. (See H.

Committees)

The elected members-at-large serve for two years with one new member elected each year. The responsibilities of the members-at-large are assigned at the discretion of the chair.

If a committee chair is elected to an Executive Committee (officer) position, the chair must resign as chair of the committee but may continue to serve on the committee.

H. Committees

Committees of the Section shall be established or discontinued by action of the Executive Committee.

Standing committees may be established to consider matters of the Section that require continuity of attention by the members. When such a committee is established, its charge, name, and size shall be determined. Unless otherwise approved by the Executive Committee, members of standing committees shall be appointed for two years and may be reappointed for a second term. In no case shall a person serve on a committee for more than four consecutive years. Appointments shall be made in such a manner as to provide continuity in membership and allow for broad representation from the membership.

Special or ad hoc committees may be created at any time by the chair, with the approval of the Executive Committee, for the performance of a particular assignment. Special and ad hoc committees may not be continued beyond three years without a review and reapproval by the Executive Committee.

DLS Standing Committees must have co-chairs. This is to ensure continuity in the work of the committee. Co-Chairs should be staggered whenever possible. Exceptions to the co-chair model are Nominating, Program Planning and Special or ad hoc committees. A co-chair model is possible for these committees but not required. (Approved June 2017)

I. Nominations and Elections

In order to be nominated, elected, and serve on the Section's Executive Committee, a person must be a current member of the Section (with ALA, ACRL, and Section dues—if applicable—paid).

The vice-chair/chair elect of the Section shall appoint no less than three members who will serve for one year on a Nominating Committee, designating one member as chair. The committee shall choose, in accordance with the deadlines prescribed by the Executive Director of ACRL, a slate of two nominees each year for each of the offices of Section vice-chair/chair-elect, Section secretary/archivist-elect, and one Section member-at-large. The two members-at-large run for alternative two-year terms. All nominees must be current members of the Section and have consented to their candidacy.

To assist the Section membership in making informed voting choices, each candidate will provide a brief statement of objectives for the Section in time for the statement to be published prior to balloting.

Additional nominations may be made by petition signed by at least ten members of the Section. Petitions must be filed with the secretary/archivist-elect of the Section and the Executive Director of ACRL at least three months prior to the date on which the ballots must be submitted. Any such nominees must be personal members of the Section and must consent to stand for election and provide a statement of objectives.

Elections shall be conducted by ballot. The candidate receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected, and the results shall be reported to the Executive Director of ACRL. In the case of a tie vote, the successful candidates shall be determined by lot.

J. Vacancies

If the offices of both the chair and vice-chair become vacant within the same year, the Executive Committee shall designate one of its members to act as chair until a chair is duly elected. At the next election, two candidates shall be elected, one to take the office of chair immediately and to serve for one year, the other to serve as vice-chair/chair elect.

If the office of secretary/archivist-elect becomes vacant, a secretary/archivist-elect shall be elected at the next election for a two-year term. A member of the Executive Council shall be appointed by the chair to serve as interim secretary/archivist-elect until the election takes place.

If the office of archivist becomes vacant, the current secretary will assume the responsibilities of the position.

If a member-at-large resigns, the chair, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee, shall appoint a successor to complete the unexpired term.

If there are vacancies on committees, the vice-chair/chair-elect of the Section shall appoint committee members to fill any vacancies due to occur during his/her term as chair. The vice-chair will name the chair of each committee. Special appointments to fill vacancies on committees may be made by the chair of the Section on the advice of the committee chair.

K. Amendments to Governance Procedures

Amendments to these Operating Procedures may be proposed by any committee of the Section or by petition signed by ten members of the Section in writing to the Section chair as long the proposed amendments are not in conflict with ALA/ACRL bylaws, policies, and procedures. Changes to these governance procedures do not require, and should not include, a ballot vote by the membership. The approval process is the responsibility of the Executive Committee. A current copy shall be provided to the Executive Director per ACRL Bylaws, Article XV, Section 3.

Distance Learning Section Committee Charges

In this section, you will find a list of the most current committee charges, followed by a checklist of Committee Chair responsibilities (general), along with procedures for determining non-performance of chairs and members. (Last updated May 2016, approved June 2017) See Appendix H. History of the section for a description of the Committee structure change.

Communications Committee

Charge: Facilitates the sharing of ideas, best practices and news from ACRL/ALA units and relevant outside agencies to DLS members and from DLS to the library community; assesses the many communication options available and maintains a formal communication plan to disseminate information among DLS members.

Discussion Group Committee

Charge: Selects topic(s) for and leads virtual discussions following Annual and Midwinter conferences. May optionally plan and host additional face-to-face discussions during Annual and/or Midwinter conferences, or host additional virtual events throughout the year. Goals are to inform attendees and promote sharing of expertise and ideas. [approved June 2015]

Instruction Committee

Charge: Creates professional development opportunities for DLS Section members and librarians from other Sections who have an interest in library instruction and instructional technology in distance learning environments; hosts professional development events via Webinars, online panels, and other virtual platforms as appropriate; facilitates meaningful conversations among librarians associated with the distance learning community, on topics such as best practices for teaching and learning in online and blended learning environments, and develops models for collaborating with faculty to integrate library instruction into online and blended courses; coordinates the Section's library instruction-related activities with ALA/ACRL; collaborates with the Instruction Section, LIRT, and other appropriate ALA/ACRL units in activities related to instruction in a distance learning environment.

Membership, Events and Fundraising Committee

Charge: Promotes membership and encourages active participation in this section; organizes Section social events; coordinates fundraising for ACRL-DLS conference scholarship.

Mentoring and Networking Committee

Charge: Develops and oversees the DLS Library mentors, a program which helps new and less experienced librarians tasked with serving distance students identify a mentor in the field; Promotes and facilitates research and publication opportunities in the area of distance librarianship; develops opportunities for distance learning librarians to meet and discuss topics related to research and librarianship.

Nominating Committee

Charge: Develops a pool of candidates who are active members of DLS eligible to serve as officers of the Distance Learning Section; arranges for and conducts a voting process to determine who will serve as officers from this list of candidates.

Program Planning Committee

Charge: Proposes, plans and organizes at least one program to be presented at the ALA Annual Conference. This program will discuss a topic that reflects the interests and values of both ACRL and DLS and may be presented jointly with another section.

Research Paper Award Committee

(On hold as of February 2017. Waiting for ACRL go ahead)

Charge: Solicits, reviews and selects the best research paper focused on Distance learning topics for the year; develops and regularly reviews the criteria for selecting the paper, manages all the marketing for the award; works with the section chair to develop sponsorship for the award.

Research and Publications Committee

Charge: Highlights and publicizes research in distance learning librarianship by creating, organizing, maintaining and distributing published and unpublished research materials designed to enhance librarians' knowledge of the field through selected physical and virtual outlets.

Routledge Distance Learning Librarian Conference Sponsorship Award Committee

Charge: Solicits, collects and reviews applications for the Routledge Distance Learning Librarian Conference Sponsorship Award, selects the most qualified individual for the annual award in accordance with the Distance Learning Section Awards Committee's criteria, and coordinates the presentation of the award.

Standards Committee

Charge: Reviews and revises the ACRL Standards for Distance Learning Library Services to incorporate current technologies and practices; serves as a resource regarding the use of the Standards and to work with appropriate committees and agencies to promulgate the Standards.

Strategic Planning Committee

Charge: Develops, reviews, evaluates, and makes recommendations to the Executive Committee regarding the Section's progress, future direction, goals, objectives, policies, and priorities; evaluates the progress of the Section and its units, and ensures consistency of policies with those of ACRL; serves as a "think tank" for the Section by suggesting areas for development for further consideration of the DLS Committees and interest groups; prepares and reviews regularly a policies and procedures manual for the Section.

Web Committee

Charge: Develops and maintains the Section web site, including adding information and resources of interest to the Section membership, designing and organizing the various web pages, monitoring the site's contents for applicability and timeliness, and planning for upgrade and updates as required. The Committee will work with other Section committees and external agencies, as appropriate, to identify relevant resources for integration into the web site.

Checklist of Committee Co-Chair Responsibilities

Do we need a section here explaining that we generally meet virtually, committees can meet how and when they want/need to. Committees must have a virtual Midwinter meeting and a virtual Annual meeting (unless by some miracle a majority of the committee members are attending ALA, then they can meet F2F during the designated All committees meeting.

- Attend Virtual Orientation conducted by Past-Chair in July
- Contact co-chair and meet to strategize and review the work of the committee during the previous year.
- Contact new committee members with a welcome message and get their preferred contact information.
- Provide roster and committee's past year minutes to incoming and current committee members.
- Attend DLS Executive Committee meetings at ALA Annual (in-person or virtually), Midwinter (virtually), and the monthly or quarterly virtual meetings.
- Determine committee direction and agenda based on committee charge.
- Write agendas for each committee meeting, post them to ALA Connect 10 days before the scheduled meeting, and send a copy of the agenda to the ACRL staff liaison.
- Keep written minutes or assign committee member to act as secretary. Post the minutes to ALA Connect and share them with the ACRL staff liaison.
- Ensure each committee member is assigned work; let no one go "task-less," even members not in attendance.
- Follow-up with committee members who do not regularly attend committee meetings (See Appendix B).
- Work with the section's Vice-Chair to determine committee appointments and reappointments.
- Inform Past-Chair of any changes that need to be made to DLS Section Manual.
- At end of term, arrange to discuss the work and direction of the committee with incoming Chair. Pass on archival committee files to incoming Chair.

Non-Performance of a Committee Chair

The Committee Chair has the obligation to put out a call for agenda items for all committee meetings held (virtually and/or face-to face) at midwinter and annual conferences (and throughout the year); submit the agenda and meeting details to the DLS secretary, the DLS Listserv, the DLS area of ALA Connect, and the ACRL staff liaison; conduct the meeting (virtual and/or face to face) according to ACRL policies; submit minutes in a timely manner; and in general, facilitate the work of the committee and its members. An essential responsibility of the Chair is to communicate with the committee, other Committee Chairs, DLS officers, and DLS membership as appropriate. Chairs must also attend the Executive Committee meetings.

If these duties are not being accomplished, the DLS Chair will communicate with the individual to ascertain if the individual needs additional support or needs to step down. If the Committee Chair is unresponsive or does not follow through on communication or commitments to the committee or to DLS, then the DLS Chair, through consultation with the ACRL Board Liaison can remove the individual from the committee and appoint another member as Committee Chair. The DLS Chair will notify the unresponsive Chair, DLS Vice-Chair and the ACRL Board Liaison of the change.

Use language found in Appendix B when sending letter.

Non-Performance of a Committee Member Committee members are appointed to a committee by the Section Chair and are expected to participate in virtual conference committee meetings, virtual meetings held between conferences and complete assignments within the time specified by the Committee Chair. If a Committee Chair determines these duties are not being accomplished and if the Committee Chair has made reasonable effort to contact the member, the Committee Chair may send a formal letter (see Appendix B) to the member. If the member is unresponsive, the Committee Chair will notify the Section Vice-Chair and ask that the committee member be removed from the committee roster and a new member be appointed. The DLS Vice-Chair will notify the ACRL Board liaison of the change.

Committee Calendars

Note: The committee calendars in this section are specific to individual committees. The Committee Chair should also refer to the Distance Learning Section Master Calendar and to Tips for Working with ACRL in this manual.

Events pertaining to all Committee Chairs are listed in the DLS master calendar.

Checklist for Running a Committee Meeting

Post an agenda and related reading materials and assignments via ALA Connect two weeks prior to the meeting.

Immediately prior to the meeting:

Verify attendance (name, institutional address, e-mail address, check mark for committee members, asterisk for visitors who would like to be committee members).

Ask one member to take minutes if there is no secretary.

Start on time.

Introduce all members and visitors.

Read and/or approve minutes of last meeting.

Make announcements (time and place of related meetings, etc.)

Review committee charge; relate committee purpose to other ACRL organization and other ACRL committees.

Begin discussion of agenda item(s). Reports from committee members with assignments should be included. Committee members should be given copies of any documents to be reviewed. Keep the discussion focused and the group on-task. As needed, establish time constraints for agenda items.

Summarize the discussion, set action items and make individual assignments with deadlines for correspondence and other reports; develop preliminary agenda for the next meeting.

Set date and time of next meeting. Close the meeting.

After the meeting:

Post minutes on ALAconnect no later than one month after the meeting.

Appendices

Appendix A: Letter to a Committee Member Who Has Not Been Participating in Committee Activities

Dear _____,

The Distance Learning Section (DLS) has an enthusiastic membership which has made it one of the fastest-growing sections of ACRL. DLS committees have a lot of work to do and need active participation by all members. You were selected for membership on the _____ Committee because the leadership of the section feels that you can make a significant contribution.

We missed your participation in our committee activities in the last year. Although ACRL no longer requires attendance at every Annual and Midwinter conference, DLS expects committee members to participate actively in online meetings, email activities, and committee assignments. In the last year you seem to have had some difficulty completing assignments or participating in meetings and discussions. I know that plans change as do professional responsibilities, so perhaps committee membership is not feasible for you at this time. Please let me know if you still are interested in membership on this committee and able to participate actively in the remaining year of your term. If I do not hear from you by _____, we will assume that you are not able to continue as a member of _____ Committee and DLS will remove you from the roster.

Sincerely,

Chair, _____ Committee, Distance Learning Section

Appendix B: DLS Documentation Process for ALA Connect Posts

June 2015 edition

Background

DLS Executive Committee has developed guidelines on how we keep our materials on ALA Connect which will make it easier for the membership to quickly locate the proceedings, section information, and documents that are needed to facilitate any committee's business.

What should be posted?

Materials that are posted to ALA Connect should be official materials related to the work of the section or committee. This includes

- Agendas
- Minutes
- Reports
- Data

If you are not sure if the item should be posted, please contact the section secretary or archivist.

When do things need to be posted?

1. For any meeting, an announcement of the meeting and an agenda must be submitted to Megan Griffin (mgriffin@ala.org) and posted to ALA Connect at least 10 days before the meeting.
 - a. Meeting announcements for committees other than Exec are not required to post an announcement to DLS-L or DLSEXEC-L.
 - b. DLSEXEC-L meeting announcement should be posted to DLSEXEC-L as well as ALA Connect.
 - c. Use the Online Doc format for announcements
2. Meeting notes must be submitted to Megan Griffin (mgriffin@ala.org) and posted to ALA Connect 30 days after the meeting. Note: This also applies to virtual meetings that take place throughout the year, not just around ALA conference time.

Where to post?

There are 2 places where ALA Connect materials can be posted.

- My Committees (ACRL DLS Exec Committee and committees you are currently chairing) – Open only to committee members
- My Sections (ACRL DLS) – Open to all members of DLS

NOTE1. Please make sure your documents are DATED and have PAGE NUMBERS. If the document has been revised, use the wording of "REVISED <REVISION DATE>."

Group Headings

Group headings are tags that need to be applied to files or documents. Using standard group headings consistently will help us keep ALA Connect organized.

1. Please assign the appropriate Group heading(s) to the document. Use the CTRL key to select all of the group Headings that apply. Group Headings are mostly the same in the My Committee and My Sections. See the Appendix for the list of headings.

The screenshot shows a form for document metadata. At the top, there is a 'Title' field with the text '2015 Outreach Committee Survey Final Report'. Below the title is a 'Categories' section with a dropdown arrow. Underneath, there is a 'Group Headings' section with a list of options: 'Events', 'Forms', 'General News & Discussion', and 'Documents'. The 'Documents' option is currently selected and highlighted in blue. Below the group headings is a 'Create your own tags' section with a text input field containing 'survey, members' and a small circular icon to its right. At the bottom, there is a 'Year' dropdown menu with '2015' selected.

2. You may add additional tags, if appropriate, to make your document more findable. For example, if you conduct a member survey and post the document on ALA Connect, it would have a Group Heading of "Documents" and an added tag "survey, members".
3. Additional Group Headings can be proposed by the membership through direct electronic communication with the Chair, Secretary, or Archivist, who would determine the viability of the proposed heading and effect any changes. It will help keep group headings consistent in both areas.
4. Under the Group Heading of "Committees," each committee will have its own subheading. Please select the appropriate Group heading for all materials you post for your committee.

Procedure for Posting Documents

1. If the document is an agenda or minutes, you must check "Public" to allow universal viewing. This makes the document visible on the main ALA Connect landing page.
2. Minutes should be given an appropriate Group Heading(s) and attached as a file. By doing this, corrections can be made BUT such changes should either be highlighted or tracked via Word's "Track Changes" feature.
3. If you are not sure, please contact the section Secretary or Archivist for assistance
(<http://www.ala.org/acrl/aboutacrl/directoryofleadership/sections/dls/acr-dlsec>)

Group Headings are the same for My Committees and My Sections with a few exceptions.

Minutes should be attached as a file and assigned the appropriate heading(s). For example, if you are the Chair of the Nominating committee posting your minutes for ALA Annual in 2014, you need to choose

A new Chair should be able to locate all the items for his/her committee quickly by searching the group heading.

Appendix G: Section History—How the Section Was Formed

The ACRL Board of Directors approved the creation of the Extended Campus Library Services Section at the 1990 ALA Midwinter Conference. Following is a brief history of the activity within ACRL which led to the formation of this new section.

At the time the 1981 Guidelines for Extended Campus Library Service were being written a discussion group was created. Records of the early meetings are not very complete but the files at ACRL do show approximately 20 or 25 persons in attendance at some of the early meetings. However, by the mid-1980's attendance had dropped considerably. At 1985 ALA Midwinter five persons were in attendance. Prior to the July 1985 Annual Meeting, Robert Cookingham as Chair of the group sent a letter to all persons who had previously attended or indicated an interest in the discussion group. In that letter he requested that the group discuss at the upcoming conference whether there was sufficient reason to continue.

Seven persons attended the 1985 Annual Meeting. As had often been the case, this was the first meeting for several attendees. Those present decided they needed the group as a forum to share ideas, that discussion topics should be pre-announced, and there should be a concerted effort to publicize the group. Mary Joyce Pickett agreed to chair the group. Since the 1986 Midwinter was to be held in Chicago, several Chicago libraries with extended campus programs were invited to participate and their anticipated participation was included on the flyer announcing the meeting. Nineteen persons attended 1986 Midwinter. Although the attendance dropped to thirteen at the 1986 Annual Meeting, participants were enthusiastic and Lynn LaBrake agreed to serve as Vice-Chair/Chair-Elect for the coming year. Eighteen persons attended at Midwinter 1987 and the 1987 Annual Conference in San Francisco found 28 persons in attendance. Since that date the discussion group has consistently had attendance of 25 or more. At the 1990 midwinter conference there were 40 in attendance.

In the spring of 1987, Mary Joyce Pickett, as chair of and representing the Discussion Group, wrote a letter to ACRL suggesting the need for an Extended Campus Library Services Committee within ACRL which could carry on projects not appropriate for a discussion group (e.g. compilation of a directory of extended campus librarians, sponsorship of programs at ALA conferences). She suggested the first assignment of the committee might be to review the Guidelines for Extended Campus Library Services. The response from ACRL was that the ACRL Standards and Accreditation Committee recommended the appointment of a Task Force to Review the Guidelines. It was suggested that the request for a permanent committee be resubmitted after the guidelines revision, if it still seemed appropriate. After the 1987 Annual Conference, the names of twelve person who had indicated an interest in serving on the Task Force to Review the Guidelines were sent to Joanne Euster, the President of ACRL. She appointed five persons from the list to the Task Force: Barton Lessen, Lynn LaBrake, Colleen Power, Julie Todaro, and Mary Joyce Pickett, Chair.

As the work of the Task Force progressed, the widespread interest in the guidelines convinced the Task Force that it was time for ACRL to take a stronger leadership role in this increasingly important area of library services. The issue also came to the forefront in discussion group meetings. In the discussion group meeting at the 1989 Midwinter Meeting, Sally Chipman, Lynn LaBrake, Barton Lessin, and Kathleen O'Connor volunteered to draft a statement of charge to be forwarded to ACRL with a request for formation of a committee. In March of 1990 Barton Lessin wrote a letter on behalf of the Guidelines Task Force to Joe Boisse, ACRL Chair, requesting the creation of a standing committee to deal with matters related to off-campus library services. This was followed by a letter from Barbara Emmer, Chair of the Discussion Group which included the charge developed by the Discussion Group volunteers. In addition, Mary Joyce Pickett, as Chair of the Task Force, wrote a letter of support which discussed the ways such a committee might support the ACRL Strategic Plan. At the 1989 Annual Meeting in Dallas, Barbara Emmer spoke in behalf of the request at the ACRL Board meeting. Bart Lessin and Lynn LaBrake were also in attendance. The question was raised by some Board members that a section might be more appropriate than a committee but the attitude was positive. One board member, Evan Farber, gave a very positive statement in support of the proposal. The ACRL Board referred the request to the ACRL Planning Committee.

The proposal came before the ACRL Planning Committee at the 1990 Midwinter Meeting in Chicago. Four guidelines task force members (Lynn LaBrake, Barton Lessin, Mary Joyce Pickett, Julie Todaro) and the Chair of the ECLSS discussion group Joyce Rumery) attended the Planning Committee meetings. The ACRL Planning Committee did not recommend the formation of a committee but recommended that section status be considered. Signatures for a petition requesting section status were readily collected at the 1990 Midwinter Conference. In the discussion group meeting it was reported that the petitions were being presented to the ACRL Board. Mary Joyce Pickett spoke on behalf of the request at the final ACRL Board meeting of 1990 Midwinter. Lynn LaBrake and Julie Todaro were also present. The request was approved.

Once approval was given for the section, questions related to getting the section started needed to be addressed. Barton Lessin agreed to communicate with ACRL concerning procedures for establishing a section and to serve as temporary chair. After consulting with the ACRL office, he appointed three committees. An executive committee consisting of the chair, the three committee chairs, and one Member-at-Large was formed. This group including Barton, Joyce Rumery (ByLaws), Lynn LaBrake (Planning), Kathleen O'Connor (Program), and Mary Joyce Pickett (Member-at-Large) would serve until an election could be held in the Spring of 1991.

In 2015, the DLS formed a subcommittee to review and revise the DLS Mission Statement. The ad hoc committee consisted of Kristin Woodward (University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Libraries, Chair), Sandy Hawes (Saint Leo University), Harvey Gover (Washington State Univ Tri-Cities), Megan Davis (University of Maryland University College) and Stefanie Buck (Oregon State University, DLS Vice-chair). In December 2015, the committee sent out a brief survey to the DLS membership to gain a better understanding of why people join DLS and what they hope to get out of their membership. Following a review of the comments from the survey and several discussions with the DLS Exec committee, the DLS Exec Committee approved the new mission statement on 3/8/2016 (?).

In 2016, the DLS underwent a review of the DLS committees. The goal was to review the current charges of the committees, determine if any of the charges needed updating, what committees the section wanted to have in the future, if any committees needed to be retried or reframed, and if any new committees needed to be formed. DLS formed an Ad Hoc committee, chaired by the DLS Chair Stefanie Buck (Oregon State University), to review the committee structure and make a recommendation to DLS Executive Committee. Committee members included Tammy Ivens (UNC Wilmington), Rebecca Nowicki (Ashford University), Sandy Hawes (Saint Leo University), Karla Aleman (Morehead State University Library) and Rebecca Renirie (Central Michigan University Library).

The Ad Hoc committee consulted data including:

- DLS 2014 Membership Survey (xxxx),
- Membership Collaboration Recommendations Report (June 2, 2015)

The DLS Chair also held one-on-one meetings with the Committee chairs in 2016 to gather input about the future of the committees. Based on this information, the Ad Hoc committee recommended a revision of the DLS committees as outlined below. This information was presented to DLS Exec at several monthly meetings for discussion and feedback. On January 10, 2017, the DLS Executive committee approved the new committee structure.
