

Improve your instruction with classroom assessment techniques

a conversation with Melissa Bowles-Terry
and Cassandra Kvenild

Classroom assessment is a learner-centered, formative assessment practice that allows instructors to find out what students are learning in the classroom and how well they are understanding it.

The minute paper

What are the two most significant things you learned during this class?

What questions do you still have?

Background knowledge check

Interlibrary loan

- a. I'm not sure what this is or why I would use it
- b. I have heard of it but not used it
- c. I have used interlibrary loan in the past and would be comfortable using it again

Finding articles online

- a. I usually use Google
- b. I use the main search on the library website
- c. I use the ERIC database

RSQC2

- recall
- summarize
- question
- comment
- connect

Goal ranking & matching

What do you want to learn?	Rank	Is it also the instructor's goal?

Transfer and apply

Write down intriguing ideas, techniques, strategies, and tactics from this conversation	Write down possible applications for your own teaching

<http://www.alastore.ala.org/detail.aspx?ID=11487>