

ACRL - SAA Liaison: 2022-2024

Recruitment Description

The ACRL Digital Scholarship Section (DSS) is currently seeking applications to serve a two-year term (July 2022–June 2024) as the ACRL liaison to the Society of American Archivists (SAA) as part of ACRL Liaisons Program.

This is a new liaison position to SAA. Liaisons will be responsible for outreach, education, and communication between SAA and ACRL in order to forge strong relationships to advance knowledge sharing across organizations, as well as the interests of ACRL and DSS.

Liaisons must be current members of ACRL, DSS, and SAA.

Liaisons are expected to participate in the ACRL Liaisons Assembly Committee and DSS. Please note that we recognize the challenges of attending multiple conferences.

Deadline for Applications: April 20, 2022

For more information about the organization, please visit <https://www2.archivists.org/>

Liaison responsibilities and expectations:

- Join and be actively involved with SAA
- Collaborate on topics of interest to both organizations
- Engage with both organizations to help forge relationships to advance knowledge
- Report on the SAA meeting and activities with the ACRL Liaisons Assembly Committee, DSS Executive, and DSS Liaison Committee on an annual basis (including attending meetings)
- Attend the ACRL Conference (Please note that funding can be requested. More information can be found at <https://www.ala.org/acrl/issues/councilofliaisons/fundingguidelines>)

Requirements:

- Current membership in ACRL, DSS, and SAA
- More detailed requirements are available at Criteria for Selecting Target Organizations and Liaisons

Application: Please send a letter of application that explains qualifications and a current curriculum vitae to Max Prud'homme [pprudho@okstate.edu].

For more information, please contact Max Prud'homme, DSS Liaison Committee Chair at pprudho@okstate.edu.